It is hard to focus attention on the many and varied activities of Starkville High School as these events take place during the school year. This year's Yellow Jacket has been written to enable us to look back and take a closer look at day-by-day life at SHS in 1963. On the pages of this book is pictured the story of one of the happiest years of our lives. May this book become a treasured record of the spirit and tradition of our school.

The 1963 Junior Senior Banquet was held on Saturday, May 11. The first thing seen by all as they arrived at J Cafeteria at 6:30 was a large entrance, lighted by a single spotlight, with "S" written on it. This theme of the banquet continued throughout.

The check counter was set up. The door provided a place for the wraps, evening bags & dancing shoes to be left during the evening. In order to enter the central room of the cafeteria, one had to cross over a beautiful little swimming pool and the lighting of the cafeteria certainly added to the trimming to the Polynesian club.

One of the other outstanding decorations were the fish which were draped on one side with colorful mobiles hanging from them, and the trees on the back drop behind the pool. The smoke coming from the top of it with the rotating spotlight showing the different colors through

The Student Advisory Council is a group of school leaders chosen to meet with the Principal to confer with him on important matters concerning the student body. It includes the presidents of the classes, the major school clubs, the band captain, and the editors of the school publications. The Senior Class president serves as president of the committee and a recording secretary is elected. Meetings are called by the principal when he needs the council's help.

This year the major activities of the Advisory Council were planning and setting up Homecoming activities and running the Who's Who elections.

SENIORS ONLY ONCE

These twelve long years of sweat and toil,
The heartaches and the tears,
The dread that greets a coming test.
The sorrow and the fears,
The happy moments, full of joy,
The sweetness of our youth;
Each passing year was filled with fun,
Glad days of smiles and truth.
At last this day has come out why
Our final year has passed;
Looking back at all the years,
They have gone so fast!

We've been seniors quite a while,
It's time for us to go,
The act is over, curtain's down,
Now others claim our show.
It's been fun, and in our hearts,
A spark will always burn;
High School seniors only once,
To freshmen again we turn.
The hills will never hear again
The voices of our class;
But in the building, ours - brand new,
Our memory will last.

And in the future, years from now,
We know we'll live again,
A minute or an hour,
Of that which once had been.
Farewell, dear Starkville High School,
Where dreams were thought and met,
We leave thee to our younger friends,
Whose plans are coming yet.

WITH OUR ADVERTISERS

When the last layout has been drawn, the last copy written, the final proofs checked, deadline worries for the '63 Yellow Jacket are over. Assistant Editor Jimmy Green and Editor-in-Chief Sandra Douglas mail in the finished proofs, which represent so many well-spent hours.

Suean,
Jo a dark
girl.
May gal
always likes it all
in everything it all do.
Remember our speech class.

Lots of luck to a real cute girl.

I love ya,
Linda W.

Dear Suean,
Because of football
practice I can't play tame with you. I'd really like to cut you know how it is.
Jo a wonderfully sweet blonde.
Be fast of luck always.
Bobby

Dear Susan
You are a marvelous girl. You have the cutest clothes and
a cute personality
to match.

Love,
Cecilia

Susan
You are a real doll
of a girl. Your personality and beauty
I like, but your
charm excites me!

Vote Republican in '63.
Lots of luck in life,
love, and leisure.
Remember always,

Carl

P.S. Stay well!

THE "Duke of Earl"
